DAHUSALEM 22 - transcultural

The Josef-Effner-Gymnasium cordially invites you to the concert "Dahusalem 22-transcultural" on March 24, 2022 in the school's auditorium or via live stream.

This concert will continue the Dahusalem project started in 2021. "Dahusalem", a neologism made from the city names Dachau and Jerusalem, refers to the locations of the two partner schools - Jerusalem High School-For-The-Arts in Israel and Josef-Effner-Gymnasium Dachau in Bavaria.

While in 2021 the photo exhibition "Dahusalem. people.change.places - places.change.people" showed the individual significance of the students' selected places in both countries, the musical-artistic interplay of three styles and cultures will now be explored in the concert by a transcultural sinfonie. In the context of the project the musicians and young artists will enter into an interdisciplinary dialogue with each other's formal language and mode of expression detaching them from their context and thus making it possible to experience the many similarities between painting and music.

The Christian Benning Percussion Group (CBPG) has been formed at the University of Music and Performing Arts Munich around the Dachau-based multi-percussionist Christian Benning, who already attracted attention there in 2009 as a young student - at that time still a pupil of the ninth grade of the Josef-Effner-Gymnasium - with his extraordinary talent as a versatile and interdisciplinary musician. Despite many concert tours and study visits: CBPG musicians regularly graced the Effner school community with their coveted concerts and always ensured a full auditorium.

All CBPG members have since gone on to stellar careers experiencing today in major international houses under renowned conductors and being award-winning soloists.

As part of the Dahusalem project a week-long educational tour and concert will take the CBPG and project participants to Israel where they will give another concert and workshop at our partner school, the Jerusalem-Art-School.

The concert in Dachau on Thursday, March 24 at 8 p.m. (Israeli time) will be streamed live on the YouTube channel Dahusalem. Please use the link <https://youtu.be/rDH2ggn7uxl> or alternatively the QR code opposite. The QR code is already unlocked from 7:45 pm.

We are looking forward to the meeting!
